RESPONSE TO USPTO COMMUNICATION

Mail Stop Amendment
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir or Madam:

In response to the Communication of August 30, 2005, please enter the following response to the Office Action of March 8, 2005.

In the Communication, the Examiner stated that the Response filed June 10, 2005 was non-responsive in that the Applicant failed to address the rejections made regarding the original examined claims. In a teleconference earlier this week the Examiner and the undersigned discussed possible alternatives to overcoming this rejection based on a non-responsive amendment. We discussed the new claims and how the Applicant no longer wished to pursue the originally filed claims, but rather preferred the clearer and more precise language of the new claims. As such, the Applicant is resubmitting the attached office action response that is the same as the prior submitted office action response, except that the 35 U.S.C. 103 section has been enhanced. In particular, the Applicant is submitting arguments for patentability with respect to the cited references and the 35 U.S.C. 103(a) obviousness rejection and the newly submitted claims.

If the Examiner believes that this revised response is still not fully responsive to the outstanding office action, please contact the undersigned by telephone.

Respectfully submitted,
